May 23—Annual meeting. Officers for the club this year are:

President—Mrs. Allan Welch.

Vice president—Mrs. William Lavender.

Secretary—Mrs. F. H. First.

Treasurer—Mrs. E. C. Fisher.

Election Officers.

Election of officers was the principal business at the annual meeting of the Beran Bible class of the South Park Presbyterian church, held last evening at the home of Miss Anna Berger, 1223 Thirty-seventh street. Twenty-five members were present and officers were elected as follows:

President—Miss Adelaide Peck.

Vice president—Mrs. William Taylor.

Secretary—Mrs. R. N. Whitley.

Treasurer—Miss Anna Berger.

Music and a social hour were enjoyed, following the business session, and refreshments were served.

Must Have Gray Suits.

In response to a number of inquiries that have been made at the Y. W. C. A. as to whether or not the regulation gray cotton Annette Kellerman suits will be permitted in the classes during the new Y. W. C. A. swimming term, those in charge wish it understood that absolutely no girl will be admitted to the classes tomorrow evening unless she wears the gray suit required. The new term will start tomorrow evening, the schedule calling for an advanced class from 7 to 7:45 on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, an intermediate class from 7:45 to 8:30 and a beginners' class from 8:30 to 9:15. Miss Dorothy Rogers, the new physical secretary, will direct the classes.

Women Reorganize Auxiliary.

The members of the woman's auxiliary of the Trinity Episcopal church held a very important meeting, the first meeting of the season, yesterday afternoon at the home of H. H. Chase, 815 Twenty-third street. The main business of the afternoon was the reorganization of the society in order to accomplish the work of the society in a more efficient manner, and to get more members of the church congregation interested in the auxiliary. Mrs. Chase and Mrs. P. G. Linter, who were present at the previous meeting of the church in Galesburg, last week, gave reports of the meeting. It was decided to have the officers of secretary and treasurer filled by two members, instead of by one, as was the custom in the past. Mrs. C. S. Morris, who was formerly secretary and treasurer, was reelected secretary, and Mrs. Harvey Sargent was elected treasurer. Refreshments were served after the business session, and a short social hour was enjoyed.

Sale and Coffee.

A parcel post sale will be held in connection with the annual fall coffee to be sponsored by the members of Barbara Fritchie tent No. 21, Daughters of Veterans, tomorrow afternoon. The affair will be held at the home of Mrs. Belle Jones, 1005 Seventeenth avenue, and friends are invited to attend.

Give Welcome Party.

Mrs. Adeline Huber and Mrs. Frank Ver Best entertained a company of friends last evening at Miss Huber's home, 1929 Twenty-ninth street, as a welcome for the hostesses' brother, George Huber, who has just returned from East Lake, Mich., where he spent the summer.

The evening hours were spent with games, vocal and instrumental music and dancing. Miss Lillian Dean took first prize in the games and Miss Lorena Beckenfeld of Davenport second. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour.

Peterboro-Hall.

At 6 o'clock this evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hall, of Milan, will take place the marriage of Miss Bernice Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson of Bowling, to Rev. F. I. Stevens of Viola, former pastor of the Milan Methodist church, in the presence of a company of immediate relatives.

The living room, where the vows are to be taken, as well as the other rooms of the house, is attractively decorated in pink and white, the bridal colors, and the bride and groom will be met by the bride's parents and other relatives. There are to be no attendants. The bride will wear a dress of dark blue satin, with self trimming and her flowers will be a corsage arrangement of Columbia roses and ferns. Preceding and during the ceremony Miss Florence Hull will sing a program of nuptial songs.

A wedding dinner will be served at 6:30, the table decorations to be in the pink and white scheme, and following the meal the couple is to depart for Grandin, N. D., where they will spend their honeymoon. After Oct. 15 they are to be at home on a farm three miles northwest of Grandin. The bride's going-away costume is a strictly tailored model of blue serge, with which she will wear a black dervet hat. The bride has been carrying out rural route No. 1 for the past two years. Previous to that time she was a milliner at McCabe's.

Aid Society to Meet.

The ladies' aid society of the Broadway Presbyterian church will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harvey Curtis, 931 Nineteenth street. The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Edward Manhard, Mrs. F. H. Plummer, Mrs. H. D. Blakemore, Mrs. J. B. Fredrick, Mrs. S. Matson, Mrs. Daniel Montgomery and Mrs. Ralph Haverstick. The society is preparing for the annual sale and supper which will be held on Dec. 3.

Give Bridge for Brides.

Mrs. Harry C. Good of Moline entertained at a charmingly appointed afternoon bridge yesterday at her home, "Knollwood," in Moline, as a prenuptial courtesy for Miss Nancy Dow and Miss Margaret Von Maur of Davenport, both brides-to-be of the near future. The guests were about thirty tri-city girls and young matrons, and tables were laid in the billiard and living rooms, which were attractive with tall vases and baskets of Russell roses. Pretty Japanese powder boxes were the favors for high score at each of the seven tables, and there was a hand painted work basket as a party gift for each of the honorees. Tea was served later in the dining room, the centerpiece of the table being a basket of Russell roses. Miss Gertrude Thompson of Washington, D. C., the house guest of Miss Dorothy Dow, was an out-of-town guest.

Civil War Veteran and Wife Celebrate
Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Black of 1223 Thirtieth street were married 50 years ago today near Keota, Iowa. They are celebrating the evening of their golden wedding anniversary with a family dinner at their home. Mrs. Black is a Civil war veteran and an active member in John Buford post.

The couple, who have made their home in Rock Island for the last 15 years, are the parents of three children, all of whom reside here. They are Mrs. R. C. Vance, F. W. Black and William V. Black. There are three grandsons, Raymond H. Black, a student at the University of Illinois, and Paul and Waldo Vance.

Mr. Black enlisted in the 19th Iowa, and served throughout the four years of the war. He then settled on a farm near Keota, and later farmed in Nebraska and Kansas. Retiring, he moved to Rock Island.

The celebration this evening includes a 6 o'clock dinner for 15 relatives and intimate friends. The bride and groom of 50 years ago were the recipients today of many messages of congratulation.

Program for A.C.A. Meeting.

A very interesting program is being prepared for the first meeting of the year of the Illinois-Iowa branch of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, to be held Saturday at 1 o'clock, in the form of a luncheon at the Rock Island Golf club. Miss Dorothy Almsworth of Moline will be toastmistress. Mrs. J. W. Maucker of Rock Island, president of the Rock Island Parent-Teacher council, will speak on "The Aims and Ideals of the Parent-Teacher Association." Mrs. Percy Ladd of Moline will speak on "Bringing Up Two Children"; Dr. Phoebe Pearsall of Moline will speak on her work as a physician, and Miss Esther Bissell of Davenport, the dean of women at the Davenport high school, will also be one of the speakers.

Those expecting to attend are urged to notify the vice chairman of their respective cities by Thursday night, as reservations must be made at the club house early Friday morning. The vice chairman are Miss Dorothy McCabe of Rock Island, Miss Ellen Pruett of Davenport and Mrs. Ethel Trimble Klann of Moline. Graduates of approved colleges who wish to become members of the association are cordially invited to be present at the meeting Saturday.

Give Dinner as Farewell.

Lieutenant Robert C. Mitchell of Rock Island arsenal post, who are to leave Saturday for Ancon, Mont., to make their future home, were entertained at a small dinner given as a farewell courtesy for them last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Rosenfield, at their home, 1804 Seventh avenue. Covers were laid for 12. The after-dinner hours were spent informally.

This evening Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Cochran of 1510 Perry street, Davenport, are entertaining at a dinner at the Davenport Outing club in honor of Lieutenant and Mrs. Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar W. Atkin, at their home, 1930 Arlington avenue, Davenport, have invited a small company of intimate friends for Friday evening as a farewell courtesy for the lieutenant and his wife.

N. Y. Author-Lecturer to Speak.

Mrs. Kate Upson Clark, Litt. D., author, lecturer and editor of New York city, will address the Moline Woman's club at the first meeting of the year to be held Saturday afternoon, Oct. 9 at the First Congregational church, Moline.

Mrs. Clark will use as her subject, "What is a Patriot?" She writes for Harper's, the Atlantic Monthly, the Independent and the Outlook.

Some of her best known books are "White Outcasts," "Art and Citizenship," "Bringing Up Boys," and "How Dexter Paid."

Camp Sponsors Dance.

Camp 3627, Modern Woodmen, will sponsor a dancing party Friday, the second of the series, at Woodman hall on Twenty-ninth avenue. White's orchestra has been engaged to play for the dances.

Party for Miss Langwith.

Miss Linda Langwith of Davenport, who is to become the bride of Nelson B. Gosline of Rock Island yesterday afternoon at an informal tea given for her by Mrs. Herman Decker of 317 Central Park avenue. There were 10 of the girls and the time was spent socially. A pretty party gift was presented the bride-to-be. The decorations were in many colored asters and cosmos.

Queen Esther Guild.

The Queen Esther guild of the First Methodist church held its regular monthly business meeting last evening at the home of Miss Stella Reid, 520 Sixteenth street, and arrangements were made for the work of the new quarter. A social hour was enjoyed following the business session, and delicious refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held Oct. 26 at the home of Miss Stella Reid, 940 Nineteenth street.

Announce Engagement.

The announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Alice Wilken, daughter of Henry Wilken of 1824 Eddy street, Davenport, to H. E. Bowers of Davenport, was a surprise of the evening at a meeting of the Sonata students held yesterday at the home of their teacher, Miss Pauline Dittman, 1923 Brown street, Davenport. After a program composed almost entirely of Greek numbers, games were played. The students divided into two sides in a spelling contest, one side, in the course of the games, announcing the engagement of Miss Wilken.

made man, except the church of Rome.

"There has been frank discussion of the differences between them, but in the earnest desire to understand and appreciate each other and to abandon the spirit of controversy. The minds of all have been given to the effort to reach that visible unity of Christians which is the only evidence potent to convince and to convert the world to Christ."

"The meeting has grown toward a closer brotherhood and our hope is sure that a great step forward has been taken toward Christian unity."

The delegates to the conference included leaders of prominence from many lands. Some of them spoke tongues strange to newly-arrived delegates and at times there was difficulty in finding interpreters. All the news all the time—The Argus.

Have Boy and Girl Party.

The Philo, Makio, Edgewood Baptist and Owles clubs of Girl Reserves of the Y. W. C. A. entertained at a delightful boy and girl party last evening in the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium. Members of the four clubs came dressed as boys. Each member escorting a girl friend to the party. As the boys and girls, they were each tagged and divided into families, as the grouch family, the laugh-a-lot family, etc., and later each family put on a very amusing stunt. The gymnasium was decorated with balloons, hanging from the ceiling, the balcony, and on the stage. Miss Helen Branstetter, Y. W. C. A. recreational secretary, led in a number of games, after which Miss Millie Beck led in a community sing. Dances were given by Miss Viola Scherrer and Miss Melvina Totten. Delicious refreshments were served late in the evening. Invitations had been issued for a T. T. E. O. party, and at the close of the evening's entertainment it was announced that the initials stood for the words, Talk To Each Other. There were about one hundred present at the affair. Mrs. Henry Tremann was a guest of honor.

Postnuptial for Mrs. Nissen.

Mrs. W. B. Nissen of 3225 Eighth avenue, whose marriage took place Thursday, Sept. 2, was the honoree at a pretty appointed party last evening, given as a postnuptial attention for her at the home of Mrs. Linnea Johnson, 812 Thirty-fourth street. The guests were ten intimate friends of the honoree, and the evening was spent socially. At a late hour a delicious luncheon was served in the dining room. The table centerpiece was a basket of pink and white garden flowers, and pink and white hearts were scattered about the table. There was a handsome set of silver spoons as a party gift for the honoree. Several other affairs are being planned for Mrs. Nissen in the near future, as she is leaving with her husband, early in October, for St. Louis, where they will make their home. Mrs. Nissen was Miss Eunice Squires before her marriage.

P. E. O. Meeting.

The regular meeting of P. E. O., Bk. chapter, was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Morris S. Hecar, 925 Twenty-second street. Regular business was transacted, and a delightful social hour was enjoyed. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held Oct. 12, the hostess to be announced later.

Many Attend Fashion Show.

Between five and six hundred women attended the fall fashion show sponsored by the Larkin club yesterday afternoon at Math's hall. Four models displayed many handsome fall outfits, and each of the visitors received a dainty souvenir of the occasion.

Coffee Announcements.

It was announced yesterday that the coffee which is to be sponsored tomorrow afternoon by Helen Gould auxiliary, would be an afternoon and evening affair, but today the chairman of the coffee committee gave out the announcement that it will be held only in the evening.

Mrs. John Bedford is to be the hostess at her home, 1701 1/2 Twenty-fifth street. The auxiliary will entertain the members of Siboney Bay camp card club during the evening also.

Twin Sisters to Wed Brothers.

O. F. Boom, 119 Seventh avenue, Moline, has announced the engagement and approaching marriage of his twin daughters, the Misses Mae and Marie to Charles and George Lockaby of that city. The double wedding will be a near future event, although the date has not been announced.

FAMOUS FOR COATS AND SUITS
THE BUSY STORE ON FIFTH AVENUE.

Stylish Stout Apparel

An Efficient Service for Stout Women

In the latest that a specialized service to stout women would be appreciated this store has made special efforts to secure ready-to-wear garments that are made exclusively for stouts, that fit and are comfortable. As a result hundreds of garments are now on display.

The unsatisfactory conditions experienced heretofore because of the fact that extra size garments were not a success have been eliminated, and the joys of being perfectly gowned in ready-to-wear garments can now be experienced by stout as well as slender figures. The clever garments that are being presented here will be a pleasant surprise for fully developed women. A trip through the various departments will be both profitable and pleasant.

Stylish Stout Cloth Coats, Authoritative Styles for Autumn and Winter

Mildred Stout Undergarments of Fine Cambric and Nainsook

Mildred stout undergarments are proper foundations for outer apparel. Even though the daintiest outer frocks, the loveliest hats and slippers, the most artistic little pieces of jewelry that add no much to the final touch are all complete in every detail unless the more intimate garments are properly proportioned, correctly made, reinforced where strain is greatest and built especially to produce stylish slender lines the entire clothes scheme is not a success. For this reason we recommend to you the following undergarments that are a success from every standpoint.

Mildred Stout Gowns priced .....$2.00 to $5.93
Mildred Stout Petticoats priced .....$2.00 to $6.95
Mildred Stout Tiedies priced .....$2.75 to $3.93

Mildred Stout Drawers, priced .....$1.25 to $3.00
Mildred Stout Camisoles of crepe de chine and tel satin priced .....$2.75 to $5.00

Features which make these garments most practical and desirable:

1. Reinforced by extra shield around armhole.
2. Adjustable button band eliminating drawingstring.
3. Fitted back without gathers or darts.
4. Material is doubled where wear is greatest.
5. Curved button band preventing gaping.
6. Inside arm seam reinforced with extra tape.
